Music Super Stars of All Stripes Line Up for Display of Affection In Commemorative DVD/CD Release

(Los Angeles, Calif., Feb 21, 2018)--- America's most famous preacher, the late Rev. Billy Graham, is about to get a major gesture of recognition from some of the world's premier entertainers, from Bono to George Strait, it was announced by Pat Boone's Lamb & Lion Home Video label.

With the evangelist's passing and his 99th birthday recently celebrated, "Thank You, Billy Graham," a multi-artist musical tribute DVD/CD, is being released.

Included in the 52-minute DVD, which is accompanied by a bonus CD of the same name, is an all-star music video and numerous bonus offerings, among them separate featurettes on "The Making Of," "The Inspiration," "Testimonials" from recording artists, world leaders and special guests, and the "Andraé Crouch Recording Session with the Christ Memorial Church Choir." Also included is a very personal and heartfelt message from Pat Boone, "Remembering Billy Graham."

Penned by motion picture actor and recording artist Pat Boone, Rock artist and Grammy-winning producer-writer David Pack from the critically acclaimed band Ambrosia, and Grammy-winning Country singer-songwriter Billy Dean, the heartfelt anthemic song and accompanying music video feature a moving tribute by over two dozen top musical talents from every musical genre along with an array of rare historical footage courtesy of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association archives. Not since We Are The World has there been a multi-artist project of this magnitude!

Says David Pack, the tribute's producer and co-writer, "This is a once in a lifetime celebration for a humble giant who has devoted his life to serving God and humanity."

Along with Bono and Strait, other featured artists include Country music stars Faith Hill, Reba McEntire, Tim McGraw, Brad Paisley, LeAnn Rimes, Kenny Rogers, Charlie Daniels, Charley Pride, Marty Stuart and Connie Smith; Pop and Rock artists Michael McDonald, John Elefante (Kansas) and John Ford Coley; R&B/Gospel artists Jeffrey Osborne, the late Andraé Crouch and the late Vestal Goodman; and Contemporary Christian artists tobyMac, Kevin Max and Michael Tate (dc Talk), Mark Kibble (Take 6) and Lisa Bevill among others. In a special appearance, former CNN host Larry King narrates the song's third verse.

Since he was ordained in 1939, Graham preached to nearly 215 million people in more than 185 countries, and led hundreds of thousands of individuals to make personal decisions to live for Christ, which is the main thrust of his ministry.

Over 100,000 ministers trained under his spiritual tutelage, and Graham preached at White House services since FDR was president.

His stadium sermons were legendary and only ended in recent years due to the world-famous preacher's frail health. Graham's wife, Ruth Bell Graham, died in June, 2007 following a lengthy illness.

“He would not want to hear it, he’s such a humble man,” says Boone. “But around the world, we need to say it: Thank You, Billy Graham.”

A portion of the proceeds from the “Thank You, Billy Graham” project will be donated to Franklin Graham’s Samaritan’s Purse, and Mercy Corps, two charities that support humanitarian relief throughout the world.

“Thank You, Billy Graham” is produced by David Pack; Pat Boone is Executive Producer.

ABOUT THE GOLD LABEL

In the late 1990s entertainment icon and Billboard chart-topping male artist Pat Boone contacted a number of his peers – singers who'd sold millions of records – and offered them the opportunity to make new records and be part of keeping their previous hits available. The Gold Label became a destination for keeping in touch with the biggest hits of the '40s, '50s and '60s by the legacy artists that made them famous, including fabulous singers like Jack Jones, Sha Na Na, The Ventures, and many more.
